

STEAM SHOWER

Even if you have only very little space available, there's no need for your dream of possessing your own steam bath to go up in smoke. The KLAFS steam showers bring you maximum pleasure in the most confined of spaces. And there are no compromises when it comes to materials and design. Whether you opt for glass mosaic, stoneware or natural stone, you will find that there are virtually no limits in terms of design possibilities. The space saving integrated technology opens up unimagined dimensions and a plethora of possibilities, regardless of whether you are seeking to cool yourself down after a sauna or are looking to give your circulation a real boost.
